Hudson, MA – December 17, 2009 – AIS announces the addition of Sid Meadows to the AIS sales team. Meadows will resume the role of Regional Vice President of Sales responsible for sales activity in the South Central, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Florida markets. Meadows was a previous employee at AIS for nearly 2 years responsible for the South Central market. During his employment he grew this developing region to unprecedented levels for AIS. To continue this trend, Meadows was rehired to further expand AIS' presence and success.

“Sid is the kind of sales person we need to bring these emerging markets to new heights. His perseverance and hands-on work ethic will produce positive growth for AIS. We are happy to have him back and a part of the AIS team once again,” said Rob Lazarus, Executive Vice President of Sales, AIS.

Meadows holds over 16 years experience having worked for Haworth, Eisys and Innovative Office Solutions. His official start date is January 4, 2010.
