DAY-TO-DAY® COLLABORATIVE TABLES

The best ideas often happen outside the conference room. AIS Collaborative Tables support idea creation by providing a space for informal meetings where colleagues come together quickly for casual interactions. The versatile and functional key and D-tops fit into spaces of all sizes, allowing for impromptu gatherings throughout the office and providing a meeting space for people to come together in open and enclosed spaces.

Choose from several mounting options including the media cabinet base, which can house technology, keeping space neat and tidy. Connect quickly. Collaborate endlessly. Make things happen.

Tower Base with Key-top visually separates space
